

Fireworks, Championships & Family Fun — Week Six Closes Strong.

RIPKEN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS • JULY 4TH WEEKEND

The final two days of Week Six are packed with baseball, family fun, and unforgettable moments — all set against the backdrop of the Ripken National Championships. From fireworks to a nationally televised championship game, here's everything happening on Days 5 and 6.

DAY 5

Fan Appreciation Day

11:00 AM – 1:00 PM
Home Run Dugout

Kids Swing for the Fences

Kids 10 & under step into the box and get 10 free swings to see how many home runs they can launch in some of their favorite MLB stadiums. No pressure — just big swings and even bigger memories.

3:00 PM The Grove

Goat Yoga — Meet the Goats!

Take a break between games and head to The Grove to meet the friendly baby goats from NY Goat Yoga. Free for everyone — no yoga experience needed. Just bring a mat or towel, a water bottle, and your camera. (Waiver required for minors.)

5:00 PM The Grove

Cornhole Classic Finals

The top four teams from the preliminary rounds go head-to-head for the Cornhole Classic title. Great competition, great atmosphere, open to all ages. Come cheer on the finalists!

DAY 6

July 4th · Championship Day

10:00 – 11:00 AM The Grove

Watermelon Eating Contest

Kick off the Fourth of July the right way! Two divisions — 17 & Under and 18 & Over — battle it out for watermelon-eating glory. Spots are limited to 30 per age group, so sign up early before it sells out.

11:00 AM Field 8

Miracle League Exhibition Game

One of the most special moments of the week. Our 12U players take the field alongside Miracle League athletes as dugout buddies, coaches, and teammates. A true celebration of inclusion and the spirit of baseball. Stream it live for free on GameChanger.

12:00 – 5:00 PM Field 6

Fan Activation Zone

Your home base for off-field fun! Dunk tanks, inflatables, face painting, food vendors, and more. A perfect spot for the whole family to relax, recharge, and soak in the atmosphere between games.

1:00 – 4:00 PM Field 4

Moms Home Run Derby — Qualifiers

No sign-up needed — just show up and get in line. Spots are first come, first served. Each mom gets 30 seconds to launch as many home runs as she can. Cheer loud for your favorite slugger!

5:30 PM Field 5

Moms Home Run Derby — Finals

The top performers from the qualifiers face off for the weekly championship title on Field 5, with temporary fencing set at 150 feet to boost home run odds. Expect big swings and even bigger energy.

7:00 PM Field 5

Ripken Nationals Championship Game — LIVE on CBS Sports

The biggest game of the week. The Ripken National Championship Game is broadcast live and nationally televised on CBS Sports. Find your spot, bring the noise, and watch history happen.

Immediately After Near the Fields

July 4th Fireworks Extravaganza

Cap off an unforgettable week with a Fourth of July fireworks show lighting up the sky above the fields. No reserved viewing area needed — just find a spot near the fields, look up, and enjoy the show with your team and your family.
